

THE TWYFORD MEDIA RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CAMERON CUSACK RETURNS TO WHERE IT ALL BEGAN

North Queensland based singer/songwriter Cameron Cusack is a two-time Toyota Star Maker finalist who in his early career toured with Troy Cassar-Daley. He has performed at Festivals and Events across Australia including Savannah in The Round, Winton Way Out West Fest and the North Queensland Cowboys home games.

The 30 year old singer/songwriter began playing guitar at a young age, which led him to compete in talent quests and perform in public from the age of 12, including busking in his home town of Merimbula.

At 18 he released his first EP titled 'Cars & Guitars' and began his touring career with releases such as 'Endless Summer', 'One Way Ticket' & 'Life's a Beach'.

Triple J Unearthed described his music thus: "The contemporary country cross reggae artist can break your heart with a beautiful country ballad in one breath, and in the next, ignite your spirit with a sultry reggae tune that transports you to an idyllic far-away holiday destination."

Now on an East Coast tour prior to heading to Nashville, Cameron has penned a new song which is sure to make some noise here at home and internationally. It carries an air of sophistication for which he has been striving for quite some time - and finally reached - in his new-found collaboration with producer James Sinclair-Stott. Guitar-driven and totally Modern Country, 'Twin Flame' is the song that puts Cameron Cusack on the map.

The 'They're Gonna Know Who We Are Tour' will be Cameron's first major national tour since the beginning of the pandemic, with shows scheduled across the country from July through into 2023. The tour is named after Cameron's forthcoming album, with tracks 'Twin Flame' and 'Skeletons & Broken Hearts' being the first two singles to be released.

Experience Cameron Cusack's original music for yourself live at The Twyford in Merimbula from 7.30pm on Saturday 15 October 2022. The performance is supported by Live Music Australia - an Australian Government initiative.

Tickets are $20 and can be booked online at <https://thetwyford.com.au> or by calling 6495 7435.
